We Shall Keep

THE CLOSE OF THIS ACADEMIC YEAR, 1942-1943, FINDS HUNDREDS OF SOUTHWESTERN MEN AND WOMEN EMBATTLED IN THE CAUSE OF FREEDOM AT HOME AND BEYOND THE SEAS.

AS A SMALL TESTIMONIAL OF ITS PRIDE IN THEM AND OF ITS LOYALTY AND GRATITUDE TO THEM, THE STAFF OF L'ACADIEN OFFERS THIS VOLUME DEDICATED TO THEIR SAFETY AND HONOR.

SALUTE...

TO VICTORY

This our "Salute to Victory," a victory that is sure to be ours. On the day peace is declared the men and women of Southwestern will lay down the weapons of war and then take up the weapons of peace. This time we will have a victory with peace to prevent our sons and daughters from having to face the horrors of another world war. The last peace was a peace created to fill the selfish aims of a few men and the nations they represented. If any peace of the future is to be a lasting one it must be one in which God had his say.

LILLIAN SPILLMAN
Queen of the Camellia Pageant
Stephanie Landry, crown-bearer

The Camellia Pageant, one of the gayest festivities that is held at Southwestern, attracts many people from miles around to enjoy the splendor and beauty of this tribute to the camellia, one of the most beautiful of the many rare and beautiful flowers common to Lafayette, the garden spot of the South.

A queen and her court, elected for each pageant, are royally entertained by lovely dancing girls and skilled acrobats. The bright costumes worn by the dancers add a touch of gaiety to the festival. Our queen this year was lovely Lillian Spillman, and her court consisted of Catherine Prescott, Dorothy Turcan, Maxine Dunphy, Doris Mae Flowers, Miriam Cronan, Alexa Randall, and Lolita Watkins, who were selected from the seven social sororities and the Girls' Club.

This year the theme of the pageant helped to promote good will with our South American neighbors. The songs and dances of our good neighbors were expertly imitated by the performers, and stage decorations included the flags of our Latin American neighbors, with "Old Glory" in its traditional center position.

Congratulations should be extended to the students and faculty members, especially the members of the faculty of the College of Agriculture and the Department of Art, who were responsible for this demonstration of such beauty and of such value in cultivating Pan-American friendship.

SORORITY RECEPTIONS

Abandoning the procedure observed in previous years of rushing and pledging girls during the first month of the fall semester, social sororities this year waited until the second semester had begun to give their rush parties and have pledge day. Pictured on this and the two following pages are scenes of the formal receptions held by all the sororities during the week before pledge day.

The "S" Club is an organization of all Southwestern athletes who have lettered in one or more recognized intercollegiate sports such as football, basketball, golf, track, boxing, baseball, and tennis. The "S" Club annually gives its "S" Club Dance the night of the Homecoming game. Al Stiegman is president of the group.

The club this year sent out membership keys to "S" Club members in the armed services. A special room is set aside in the boys' gym for the use of the members.

CHEERLEADERS

The Bulldog fans saw one of the finest groups of cheerleaders in the state this year. The chief yell leader Arthur Lee led his colleagues through many hard tumbling practices in order to give the fans their Friday night treat. Althea Roesch and Maxine Dunphy added a touch of beauty and loveliness to the squad while George Berry and Denbo Montgomery "flipped" and carried on as "monkey men" should.

This group demonstrated what co-operation and practice would accomplish. They took their jobs seriously and got the results that any football team, coach, or fan would appreciate in cheerleaders.

SEASON

Southwestern's first war time football team began under rather adverse conditions; not only had Coaches John Cain and "Gee" Mitchell joined the armed forces, but many eligible lettermen had also answered Uncle Sam's summons. Called in to fill the breach when the future of Bulldog football looked bleak was genial Coach Louie

Whitman who guided the Canines through the 1942 campaign. A former star for the University of Wyoming, Whitman obtained the able services of Coaches Bill Stevenson and Clarence Strange. Stevenson was well known at Southwestern having been a key figure in the Bulldogs renown forward wall of 1938, "The Seven Oaks". Strange had spent his undergraduate days at L.S.U. and played on their nationally famous teams.

Aiding the new mentors was Athletic Director R. L. Browne and the Bulldog trainer, "Dutch" Reinhardt.

A RESUME

Journeying to Montgomery, the Bulldogs inaugurated the 1942 season with a tussel with the mighty Crimson Tide of the University of Alabama. The crushing and diversified attack of the "Big Red" machine proved too much for the game Bulldogs, who were greatly hampered by lack of reserve power and Alabama triumphed 54-0.

In a thrilling wide open gridiron battle, Coach Whitman's stalwarts opened the home season with a decisive win over the Southeastern Lions 35-13. By the end of the first quarter, the Bulldogs had rolled up a 16-0 lead and many freshmen were getting a taste of varsity play. Bickham and Voitier were outstanding for the Red and White.

Next visitor to McNaspy Stadium was the highly touted Ouachita College eleven of Arkadelphia, Arkansas. The Arkansas squad, although outplayed by the Bulldogs, were the winners, 6-0. A high 42 yard pass was the scoring play early in the first quarter. In the final period the Bulldog forward wall rose to new heights in holding their heavy opponents for three plays on the two yard line. Douglas, Ramsay, Salassi, Bickham, Broussard, Guidry and Baldwin were stalwarts in the line while the entire backfield of Robinson, Williams, Voitier and Steigman were help in the backfield.

OF THE SEASON

Third in a series of five consecutive home games was the Canines' engagement with Camp Beauregard. Taking advantage of every opportunity, the Southwesterners smothered the hapless soldiers 62-0. Theo Fakier, reserve tailback, snakehipped for three scores and freshmen backs Lambousy, Boudreaux, Keller and Johnson rolled up tallies for the Bulldogs. The ruling allowing freshmen to compete in varsity sports was enabling the Southwestern coaches to give their hard hit varsity needed rest.

RESUME OF SEASON

Before an enthusiastic Homecoming crowd, the Bulldogs turned back the highly touted Louisiana Tech aggregation 12-7. Biggest thrill of the evening was a 75 yard run by Fitzgerald, Southwestern end, after scooping up a Tech fumble. Try for extra point was no good. Later in the third stanza Charlie Robinson carried the pigskin over the goal after a long heave from Voitier to Fitzgerald had brought the ball to the four yard marker. A sustained 58 yard drive netted the upstate Bulldogs their only score.

RESUME

Louisiana Normal's alert Demons in the last home game of the season snatched the L.I.C. crown from the Bulldogs in a nip and tuck battle, 11-6. Without once relinquishing the ball, the Demons drove to a score in ten plays with Bambrick hitting the Bulldog front for valuable yardage. Conversion was no good. A few minutes later Southwestern tied up the important conference game by pushing frosh fullback, George Lambousy, over the goal line. In the second half, unable to make headway through the Bulldog line, the Demons kicked a field goal and went into the lead 9-6. When Voitier was tackled behind his own goal line in the last quarter, the Demons added two more points to their score.

OF THE SEASON

Seniors playing their last home game for the Red and White were: Gene Baldwin, T. E. Bickham, Wilson Broussard, John Ramsay, Charlie Robinson, Carroll Salassi, Al Stiegman, Ney Williams and Bob Voitier.

Coach Whitman's charges invaded the Lone Star State for their final game of the year with Sam Houston Lumberjacks. Handicapped by freezing weather and a sleet-like rain the Bulldogs were knocked off 7-0. The Lumberjacks scored the only touchdown after blocking a Southwestern punt and recovering the ball on the Bulldogs twelve yard line.

Thus ended the 1942 football campaign. Southwestern placed second in the L.I.C. race. Al Stiegman and Bob Voitier were named on the first all-L.I.C. team and T. E. Bickham and Charlie Robinson were placed on the second eleven. Robert Fitzgerald, John Ramsay and Wilson Broussard received honorable mention.

Bickham and Voitier received honorable mention on the Associated Press's Little All-American squad.

SOUTHWESTERN TAKES L.I.C. HONOR AGAIN

The Bulldogs won the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference track and field championship for the third straight year at the State Normal College when they piled up 76½ points.

The Louisiana Normal Demons came through for second place with 62½ points. Louisiana Tech Bulldogs of Ruston were third with 15 1/3 points and the Southeasterns Lions of Hammond trailed with 8 points.

The Southwestern spikemen made their points by taking 10 firsts and a tie for first, 5 seconds, 1 third and 2 ties for third, and 4 fourth places.

Aillet of Southwestern was high point man of the meet with 11¼ points made in first in the 440 dash and 220 dash and anchor man on the winning relay teams.

Tripp of Normal and R. Roy of Southwestern tied for second place individual honors with two firsts each, Tripp making his in the discus and the shot put and Roy getting his in both hurdle races.

Although the track was fast and there was little wind to hinder the athletes, no records in the conference meet were bettered. R. Roy came the closest to bettering former marks when the Southwestern star ran both the high and low hurdles in one-tenth of a second below the old marks set in 1935 and 1933, respectively.

S. L. I.'s BULLDOGS SWAMP LA. TECH

Coach Bob Browne's Southwestern Louisiana Institute track team easily defeated the spikemen from Louisiana Tech this afternoon netting a total of 96 points while the visitors could gather only 21.

A sharp rain during the meet sent the fans scurrying to shelter and cleared the field of athletes not participating in the events at the time, and left the track and field muddy. All running events were slowed up considerably.

The Bulldogs dominated all running events, placing first in all and second in seven of the eight races.

Topping all athletes in individual scoring was Griffin Brumfield, Southwestern senior, who took first place in the century and in the 220 yard dashes and anchored the Bulldog team in the mile relay . . . Brumfield accounted for 11¼ markers and was closely followed by his mate Louis Keigley, broad jumper and hurdler, who amassed 11 points. Curtis Broussard, distance man, and Ralph Roy, hurdler, followed with 10 points each and Captain Aillet of the Bulldogs was close with 9¼ points.

The slugging Bulldogs of S.L.I. suffered the short end of more than half of their games this year. Though the results of the season were not too favorable, each game was hotly contested in every department.

Most of the competition furnished the canine were the Army teams of nearby camps. These players were well-drilled and showed plenty of experience.

Camp Polk took the Bulldogs' measure twice. The first defeat was 5-3, and the second was 6-2.

Louisiana Tech was the only college team to face our boys. The Techmen got off to a slow start by losing 4-2, but had better hunting the next game by defeating the Slimen 4-0.

In the second series of S.L.I.-Tech games, the slugging nine of the North Louisiana ball club made a clear sweep by winning both games 6-0 and 10-3.

Our boys slugged the Lake Charles Army Aviation Base out of our own ball orchard when they defeated the cadets 12-0. The second game was stopped by rain in the seventh inning, but the score was against

RED JACKETS

Combining military precision and feminine charm, the Red Jackets add color to Southwestern's athletic contests and to all the demonstrations in which the organization participates. This select group of sophomore, junior, and senior girls have worked hard to achieve perfection in their drills and eagerly assist in all activities which might benefit by the sparkle and attractiveness they provide. Not only have the Red Jackets performed at all the football games and other programs on the campus; they have also participated in such community activities as the Army Day and Navy Day parades.

The curtailment of Southwestern's intercollegiate athletic program will not result in a lull in the activities of the Red Jackets, because they have already lent their support to patriotic movements and because they plan to function as a "victory corps," whose purpose will be to perform tasks on the campus that might otherwise be left undone because of the labor shortage.

VICTORY THROUGH PHYSICAL FITNESS

The Health and Physical Education Department made its slogan "Victory Through Physical Fitness" in mapping out its program for the academic year 1942-43. An obstacle course modelled upon the Navy's pre-flight obstacle courses was set up on the edge of the training school grounds. Later, an equally tough obstacle course was set up for the women. The physical training of the girls has been emphasized because of the need of healthy, vigorous bodies to build for our country's future. Extensive achievement tests are periodically given to check on the individual's improvement and to determine what exercises are needed to build a well-proportioned body. As an example of this, after tests revealed shoulder and arm weaknesses, calisthenics were then concentrated on those exercises that would toughen these muscles.

Constantly, the boys and girls have been reminded of their duty to be prepared to take part in America's drive to victory. With an excellent and untiring staff, the department has helped many of the students who through their gym classes have developed a respect for the need of being healthy, aggressive, and tough.

Proof of the success of the group training of the students came with the spring field day when all the students took part in a public demonstration of Southwestern's war program that will insure "Victory Through Physical Fitness."

WOMEN'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Presented here is a pictorial account of the accelerated program of health and physical education inaugurated this year for the women at Southwestern.

The physical education schedule has been stepped up for all students so that freshmen and sophomores now attend classes in physical education five days a week, rather than two as in previous years, while juniors and seniors take three hours a week instead of none.

Not only have the hours been increased; new methods of training have been devised and new equipment has been obtained. An outstanding innovation in the girls' classes is the obstacle course that was constructed this year between the gymnasium and the tennis courts. The course is composed of such obstacles as parallel bars, overhead bars, upright and inclined walls, hurdles, and rope swings.

WOMEN'S PHYSICAL

EDUCATION

The women's instructors have placed special emphasis on outside activities, taking their classes on cross-country hikes, having them roller-skate and ride bicycles, and giving calisthenics outside on sunny days.

The department has emphasized defense training by teaching the girls fire-fighting tactics. And time has been found in which to give the girls drills and exercises designed to develop grace, balance, and poise.

The Young Women's Christian Association was organized on the Southwestern campus to promote fellowship among its members and to direct social and religious activities. An outstanding speaker lectures at each weekly meeting, to which all students of the campus are invited and through which they derive instructive information which guides them to become better students.

Faculty advisers for the Young Women's Christian Association are Miss Hulda Erath and Miss Tommy Ruth Hyatt.

The Latin Club, composed of all students interested in Latin, meets monthly under faculty guidance of Mrs. R. J. Cornay and Dr. G. B. Roberts. The club's chief aim has been to stimulate an interest in the Latin language. From the beginning the purpose of the club was to make a dead language the liveliest thing in school. Its members have enjoyed many delightful programs and entertainments this year; and it is one of the most important organizations on the campus because of the educational and social benefits it affords its members.

Since the Mathematics Club has as its primary purpose the development of an interest in mathematics and the benefits, both vocational and avocational, to be derived from mathematics, the club does not require its members to possess an advanced knowledge of the subject. Instead it attempts to show in its programs how a basic knowledge can enable one to enjoy such things as puzzles and problems and to become more proficient in fields other than mathematics. Programs are under the direction of faculty advisers, Miss Jessie Mae Hoag or Dr. S. T. Sanders.

Scribblers' Script, magazine of the English department of Southwestern, is designed to foster literary endeavor on the campus. Contributions—including short stories, essays, poems, and book reviews—are accepted from students in any department of the college, and the magazine is published three times yearly. In each issue is presented an article from some member of the faculty whose field of endeavor at that particular time is of interest to aspiring writers.

The faculty adviser during the first semester was Miss Mary Dichman, who was succeeded by Miss Lucretia Money.

The Board of Publications—composed of five members of the Student Council appointed by the President of the Student Council and approved by the Faculty Committee on Publications and the President of Southwestern Louisiana Institute — has general supervision of the two college publications, The Vermilion and L'Acadien. The board determines the qualifications to be met by the editors and business managers of the publications, and in the spring selects the persons to fill these positions during the succeeding session.

BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS

REPORTERS—Quintilla Anders, Nita Cangemi, Ara May deGravelles, Fay Gautreau, Nan Langford, Ralph Irving, William Meyer, Jean Roberts, Richard Saloom, Norman Smith, Renate Teichman.

Denver Graham, Feature Editor; Billy Meyers, Sports Editor; Bernard Marcantel, Associate Editor.

Albert Minckley, Editor; and Harold Kilgore, Business Manager.

The Vermillion, Southwestern's weekly newspaper, covers all the occurrences of significance on the campus, with its copy ranging from straight news write-ups to the exclusive morgels printed in the "Snoop." An outstanding feature of the paper this year was the page of service news published in each issue about Southwestern alumni.
